17. FORCE MAJEURE. A party affected by a Force Majeure Event (the “Affected Party”) is excused from its obligations under the PO or these Terms & Conditions. However, events affecting Vendor’s other customers or business apart from the PO do not excuse Vendor’s failure to timely perform its obligations. The Affected Party must provide prompt notice to the other party after occurrence of a Force Majeure Event and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to resume performance without delay. If Vendor is unable to perform its obligations for more than forty-eight (48) hours due to a Force Majeure Event, Verkada may, upon written notice to Vendor: (a) cease payments until Vendor recommences its performance; or (b) immediately cancel the PO and terminate these Terms & Conditions and pay only those undisputed amounts then due and payable.

Any judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 18(h) (Dispute Resolution & Arbitration) shall be deemed to prevent either party from seeking injunctive or other equitable relief from the courts as necessary to prevent the actual or threatened infringement, misappropriation, or violation of its data security, Intellectual Property Rights, or other proprietary rights.
